FOR EVERY REPUBLICAN.

We ask the Republicans in each Ward and Town to perfect their organization!—Let there be committees appointed by the Club in each Ward and in each Town to attend to the election. Fellow Republicans of FRANKLIN, OAK CREEK, GRANVILLE and other towns, we mean you, as much as we mean the Republicans of the Seventh Ward. MEET AND DO THE BUSINESS! Let no one be afraid to take the responsibility and see it done. The man who reads this before election, and can find it in his heart to give a little time to secure a great result, is the particular man of whom we write. We mean you! Have the meeting called, attend it, and don't fail to do the necessary work. Have your ticket committee, your challengers, your committee to secure the attendance of the voters, and then be on hand and see that the work is properly done. BOYS, IT WILL PAY TO WORK THIS TIME!

THE COUNTY ELECTION.

Our friends in the several Wards and Towns of Milwaukee County are earnestly entreated to give their time, so far as they can possibly spare it, until after next Tuesday, to the general business of the election. Do not be contented with voting right. To make our great triumph complete, we want your active co-operation. WE OUGHT TO ELECT OUR WHOLE COUNTY TICKET. And we speak advisedly and on accurate information, when we assure our friends that WE CAN DO IT, if we are all true, faithful and not afraid to work, as such a triumph ought to be worked for. From every quarter of the county—and our active friends have penetrated it thoroughly—we get the most encouraging reports. Life-long Democrats, especially among the Germans, have resolved to follow their principles out of their party. The results on election day will strike terror to our adversaries, and astonishment to our lukewarm, or careless friends. We are no longer working without hope. The excellent ticket put up by the Republicans wins a united support among us, and will receive a large vote from honest men in the Democratic party.

REPUBLICANS! BE DOING! AROUSE! Let not this election be lost for want of work! A few noble, earnest men have been doing the great part of the labor of the canvass, while others, expecting to enjoy its fruits in an equal degree, have been idle. Let us all do our best! Our adversaries are giving time and money, without limit, to a bad cause, and shame some of us who feebly support a good one.

REPUBLICANS! DO YOUR DUTY AND YOU WILL REAP YOUR REWARD!

Mr. Potter and Mr. Arnold.

Rumors reach us of faint-hearted, or thoughtless Republicans, talking of voting for Mr. ARNOLD. We do not find that such reports have any foundation, and they seem to have been set afloat, with many other falsehoods, by our unscrupulous enemies.—We have made some search, and WE HAVE NOT FOUND THE FIRST REPUBLICAN WHO IS NOT GOING TO VOTE FOR POTTER and for the entire ticket! And why should we vote for Mr. ARNOLD? Does he represent the political sentiments of the First District? The people have answered that question in a way that cannot be misunderstood. Has Mr. POTTER ever cast a vote, or uttered a sentiment in Congress, which we should wish to see recalled? Not one! Would Mr. ARNOLD suit us better in these respects? Nobody believes it. Could Mr. ARNOLD accomplish more for the District, or favor this county more than Mr. POTTER? Mr. POTTER's four years experience, his firmness and integrity, his ability and judgment, have given him an influence and position in Congress, a capacity for doing good, that no new man can have, whatever his merits.—He has been the steady friend of this county, and has quietly done far more for us than the vaunting LARRABEE has done for the Third District. Again, Mr. POTTER will be ON THE SIDE OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND OF THE MAJORITY OF THE HOUSE. Mr. ARNOLD would have to battle both. Mr. POTTER has proved himself a faithful public servant. Mr. ARNOLD has shown that he would not even stand by his party, nor his principles.

Is the private character of Mr. POTTER in any way exceptional? Only the most brazen-faced of liars have attacked him on this score. The people of this District know him, and they know something about his opponent. We turn from the field that here lies open, and forbear to imitate the bad example of Democratic newspapers. We say only this to the voters of the District, and especially of this county—VOTE FOR THE BEST MAN—YOU KNOW WHO HE IS!

The Signs of the Times.

The News, that reliable and consistent organ of Sham-Democracy, undertakes to palm off upon credulous readers, the following prognostication:

> Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Rhode Island, California and Oregon, to say nothing of Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan, wear an aspect, at this time, which makes the knees of the old political stagers, in the Republican party, smite each other. The hand-writing on the wall is becoming more and more visible to them every day.

Yes—the "hand-writing" is plain enough; only the News refuses to read it. "None so blind as those who will not see." The States enumerated by the News, in the above paragraph, will vote somewhat in this wise:

New York,	75,000	majority for	LINCOLN.
Pennsylvania,	50,000	do	do
Illinois,	15,000	do	do
Michigan,	20,000	do	do
Wisconsin,	15,000	do	do
Iowa,	7,500	do	do
New Jersey,	10,000	do	do
Rhode Island,	5,000	do	do
Oregon,	1,000	do	do
California,	2,500	do	do

The News' candidate, in all human probability, will not carry a single State.

LOOK OUT FOR ILLEGAL VOTES!—The Chicago Tribune of yesterday says:

> Within a few weeks past not less than 400 Irish laborers have gone from Northern Illinois to work on the Extension North Western Railroad. They are bona fide laborers and were sent into Wisconsin for a legitimate purpose by the contractors. But they are not citizens of Wisconsin, and have no right to vote there. They have been in the State only a few weeks, and they have no business to vote in Wisconsin. But they most certainly will vote there, if not closely watched and vigorously challenged.

Our friends in the Third District must be on the look-out for these bogus votes.—Prompt challenging and the presence of a good Republican crowd at every poll, will effectually scare off all illegal voters.

Democrats Coming to the Rescue.

To the Editors of the Courier and Enquirer:

A prominent Democrat in this city, of vigorous intellect, who hitherto always voted with his party, now declares that he shall give his support to LINCOLN as President at this election. It being the result of his deliberate and sincere conviction that the success of the Republican candidate would tend most to harmonize the country at large, while that of either of the others would prolong the agitation. Many Democrats concur in the opinion as it is the rational view of every REPUBLICAN.

Oct. 27, 1860.

What is true of New York, is equally true of all other parts of the North. Democrats are flocking in crowds to the Republican standard; partly from disgust with "fusion;" partly from a wish to rebuke Southern bullying; but mainly from the firm belief that nothing will do so much to restore peace and prosperity to the country as the election of ABRAHAM LINCOLN. This conviction will swell the majorities for LINCOLN in every Free State, by many thousands.

The Disunion "Scare Crow."

The News of yesterday confidentially assures its readers that the SENTINEL believes that Mr. LINCOLN's vote "will be largely augmented in this State," if it can be made to appear that the result will "produce a dissolution of the Union." The News, moreover, has "no doubt" that the SENTINEL "wants to break up the government," and expresses the opinion that the SENTINEL and its party cannot conceal their "fiendish joy" at the prospect of succeeding in their aim. We beg the old lady of the News to calm her agitated feelings and spare her nerves. Nobody proposes to "break up the government." Nobody is going to dissolve the Union. The "joy" that the Republican feel at the prospect before them is anything but "fiendish." It disposes them to deal kindly with all men, and especially with their erring brethren of the Democratic persuasion. We desire to quiet their fears; to dispel their forebodings; to convince them that the election of a President by the people is no cause for a dissolution of the Union. Let the News, therefore, rest easy. The Union is safe, the "fire-eaters" to the contrary notwithstanding.

Good Cheer.

> The Republican State Committee had a meeting in New York on Friday. The intelligence received from every county in the State was of the most cheering character. The State is not only deemed safe beyond all possible contingency, but the majority will exceed, in magnitude, the hopes of the most sanguine.—FRIENDS! help make it seventy thousand! Every additional vote will augment the moral power of the victory.—Albany Evening Journal, Monday.

The Journal does not speak at random. Its utterances, in regard to the vote of NEW YORK, are prophetic. Look out for a rousing majority for LINCOLN and LIBERTY in the Empire State next Tuesday!

MINNESOTA ALL RIGHT AND ALL READY!—"We conversed yesterday, says the Chicago Journal of Tuesday last, "with an intelligent gentleman, who had just come down from St. Paul, and he says that the Republicans of that region are all alive with enthusiasm for LINCOLN, and it is anticipated that the State of Minnesota will more than double her former Republican majority. Everybody, he says, is coming into the Republican party, up there, and the Democrats have given up the fight, many of them conceding that 'it's of no use trying.' The Republicans are sure of electing both their Congressmen, the Legislature, and making a clear sweep of everything."

"By St. Paul! the war goes bravely on!"

Political Stock-Jobbing Scheme.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29, 1860.

The political stock jobbing of Mr. Cobb and his confederate conspirators in New York has excited deep indignation and resentment here and throughout the State. Pennsylvania will give Mr. Lincoln at least 50,000 majority, and perhaps 60,000 or 70,000. She is determined to meet the issue squarely, and defy the traitors and nullifiers, who are now conspiring to break up and plunder the Government. Philadelphia, which gave Mr. Foster near 2,000, will give Mr. Lincoln 6,000 majority or more. The Bell men, who were not bought by the Administration to run the machine, have joined our standard bravely, and are now in full commission. They confess having been the dupes of knaves and tricksters.

HOWE'S IMPROVED SCALE is fast taking a lead in the market on account of its simplicity and durability, doing away with check rods, and taking the wear off the knife edge by receiving the friction on balls. We have been shown a number of certificates of the accuracy and durability of Howe's Scale; amongst others the following decisive one as to its merits:

DELAWARE, LACKAWANA & WESTERN R. R. Co.
Local Department Agency, Washington, N. J.,
September, 11, 1860.

MR JOHN HOWE, JR:—Dear Sir:—The continued use of your 200 ton scale at Plane No 6, only strengthens my opinion as to the accuracy and durability of the Scale.—We shall weigh on it this year at least 700,000 tons, and I consider it as good as the day it was put up. Respectfully yours,

A. P. BERTHOUD,
Agent Morris Canal.

Mr. Dickerson, the Western Agent, informs us that the above Scale has been in constant use nearly four years, and that it is set out of level seven feet. A large stock of these Scales including the 20 ton track and 6 ton Hay Scale, are set up and can be seen at his tin plate warehouse, No. 45 Wabash Avenue.—[Chicago Tribune.

MORE BODIES FOUND.—The station agent at Gibson telegraphs H. E. Sargent of the M. C. R. R., that six dead bodies, supposed to be those of victims to the Lady Elgin disaster, are on the shore off that station, 27 miles from this city, and asks that our authorities be informed. The duty devolves upon the Coroner of Lake Co., Indiana, who must be a sharp fellow or he would not have rendered necessary this second application in behalf of the unburied dead. Perhaps if six trunks had come ashore well filled, it would not have taken so long to get up proper attentions.—Chicago Tribune.

LITTLE GIRLS.—There is something inexpressibly sweet about little girls.—Ex.

And it grows on 'em as they get bigger. There now.—Louisville Journal.

Matters at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31—9 P. M.

The Philadelphia Board of Trade at Lexington, Ky, this morning were conducted to Ashland by Hon. J. C. Breckinridge. On their return they partook of a dinner tendered by the merchants of Lexington, and were afterwards escorted to this city by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce, arriving at 6 o'clock. A grand banquet will take place to-morrow night at the Burnet House.

A ten mile trotting race will come off at the Trotting Park on Saturday next, between Gipsey Queen, of Chicago; Capt. McGorman, of Louisville; and Lady Gay, of Cincinnati, for a purse of $2,300. The two former horses trotted a ten mile race at Louisville, a week ago, making a dead heat—the only case of the kind ever known in the United States. Great interest is manifested in the forthcoming contest.

Star of the West.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31—3 P. M.

The Star of the West has arrived from Havana, with dates to the 27th, and reports a slave vessel with 400 negroes brought into Havana by a Spanish War vessel.

Failures in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31—9 P. M.

Messrs. Josiah Lee & Co., closed their banking house to day. They have made an assignment. Messrs. Appleton & Co. have also closed their doors. There are numbers of other stock dealers suspending.

Arabia Sailed.

BOSTON, Oct. 31—3 P. M.

The steamship Arabia sailed at 11 o'clock, with 74 passengers for Liverpool, and 18 for Halifax, but no specie.

Republican Rally.

To all good Republicans of Milwaukee! It is earnestly requested that the Republicans of Milwaukee meet at the Headquarters in Albany Building, on Friday evening, November 2d, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Business of great importance to the cause will be transacted. Republicans do not fail to turn out.

Republican Meeting in the Ninth Ward.

The Republicans of the Ninth Ward are hereby invited to meet at JOHN GOETZ'S, Friday evening Nov. 2d, at half past seven o'clock, for the purpose of organizing for the day of election.

WARD COMMITTEE.

Evening papers please copy.

Mass Meeting

CARL SCHURZ and JOHN F. POTTER will speak at the Wisconsin House, on the Kilbourn Road, corner of the four towns, Saturday, November 3, 1860, at 7 o'clock P. M. The Milwaukee Wide Awakes and Gun Squad will be present.

Get Your Tickets Ready!

CANDIDATES and COMMITTEE-MEN should see to it, in season, that a full supply of tickets is printed and furnished to every poll in the city and county. This should be done during the present week. Don't put it off till the last moment.

The Meeting at Wauwatosa.

Our Wauwatosa friends have a mass meeting this afternoon and evening. CARL SCHURZ speaks there at 3 o'clock. Other gentlemen will address the gathering during the afternoon and evening. The "Wide-Awakes" from Waukesha and Milwaukee will be on hand. Altogether a good time may be confidently anticipated. We hope that the Republicans of our city will turn out in goodly numbers, to return the call of the Wauwatosa "Wide-Awakes."

Republican Rally in the Fourth Ward.

The Republicans in the Fourth Ward had a large and spirited meeting on Tuesday night. They were addressed by CHARLES CAVERNO, our candidate for the Assembly, in an admirable speech, which roused the enthusiasm of the audience to the highest pitch. Mr. WINFIELD SMITH followed in some very effective remarks. Both of these gentlemen will speak again to-night, at half-past 7, at the school house in Palmer's Addition. Republicans are invited to assemble at the Club Rooms in Plankinton's Hall at 7 o'clock P. M., from whence they will proceed in a body to the school house. TURN OUT ONE AND ALL.

BODIES UNRECOVERED.—Mr. E. D. DETWILER, who came up in company with Mr. BUELL from Chicago on Tuesday, reports that on the beach, thirty miles south of that city, he saw four bodies on the sand—one with the head gone, and all within a mile's space. Not far from where the body of Mr. PIERCE was found, the sand had partly interred a corpse, leaving only the hands exposed. Mr. D. is of opinion that many more might have been discovered had they proceeded far enough. He brought up with him a large signet ring, taken from one of the bodies—a man about six feet high. He has left it with the Chief of Police. Mr. D. also states that nothing is being done for the recovery of these remains, that they lie there exposed to the surf.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A most enthusiastic meeting of Republicans was held at ARNOLD's tavern, Wauwatosa, on the evening of Oct. 30. The Wide Awakes, to the number of about forty, were present with their torches.

A large number of German Democrats were present, and were very much pleased with the meeting, and expressed a determination to vote for Mr. PHELPS and the whole Republican ticket. Speeches were made by C. K. MARTIN, Esq., Mr. NEUSTADTL and MASON G. SMITH.

ACCIDENT.—GUY NICHOLSON, an old resident of the town of Lake, was dreadfully injured in unloading a stick of timber on Tuesday, at JONES' ship yard in this city. The timber, in falling to the ground, caught him, and tore the flesh from the bone—the whole length of the calf of his leg, and otherwise injured him severely. The bone was injured, but not broken, it is believed. Dr. C. H. ORTON, of the Fifth Ward, dressed the wound in a very skillful manner, so that Mr. NICHOLSON was enabled to be carried home.

While suffering under the operation of dressing his wound, he exclaimed: "I am sorry for this on one account; besides the pain it gives me—I will not be able to cast my vote this fall for ABE LINCOLN!"

ANOTHER EXCELLENT NOMINATION.—The Republicans of the Ninth Ward have nominated SAMUEL BROWN as their candidate for Alderman. Mr. BROWN is one of the "pioneers" of Milwaukee and would fill, most cordially, the office in question. The Ninth Ward will consult its own best interests in electing him.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Yesterday about noon, MARTIN CURRAN fell from the scaffold attached to the new building being erected by J. B. SMITH, on Van Buren street, breaking both legs and one arm. It is also feared that he received internal injuries. Mr. CURRAN is a resident of the First Ward. He has a wife and family.

NOMINATION.—At a Republican meeting in the Ninth Ward, held at John Goetz's saloon, Tuesday evening, SAMUEL BROWN was unanimously nominated for Alderman of said Ward.

Shall we Elect Our County Ticket?

That's the question, gentlemen. If there are any Republicans who have settled down in the conviction that Milwaukee must remain Democratic, let them take comfort. It is never too late to mend. It is unquestionably true that our ticket can be elected. The only question is, will you go to work and accomplish the end? What we abominate is an apathetic Republican—all fire and fury when corruption is mentioned, but with never a word to say or a muscle to strain when the working time comes. Terribly severe on peculation and county taxation, but out of the way when a remedy is presented. If our ticket is to be elected, it is only at the cost of untiring exertion.—Four days more are given you to work. Take off your coats (either literally or metaphorically.) This big majority will not roll itself up. Gravity forbids it, to say nothing of Human Nature. Shoulders must be put to the wheel even yet, if the car is to move on. There lives not a man in the county limits whose personal influence is valueless. Exert it! Close up gentlemen! The appointed time draws nigh!

Body Found at St. Joseph.

Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.

ST. JOSEPH, Oct. 30, '60.

DEAR SIR:—Below is the description of the body of a woman found on the lake shore near this place, in Berrien county, Michigan, on the 25th inst., supposed to be one of the sufferers on the ill-fated Lady Elgin:

About five feet high; rather large front teeth; one front tooth out of the upper jaw, and three front teeth out of the under jaw, supposed to have been filled with false ones; on her left hand, third finger, were three rings, one marked on the inside "F. M. C. to S. E. M.;" black silk dress with two flounces on the skirt, about ten inches wide each; on the fringe or worked part of the waist appeared to have been small beads worked in, but had dissolved into a paste; one worked linen figured lined skirt; one cotton hoop skirt with three cane hoops one-half inch wide each; chemise worked around the neck; on one foot was an elastic gaiter boot, about No. 4; a white cotton stocking inside. Supposed to be about middle age. No other description could be got of her person as it was in such a decayed condition. Any inquiries by friends will be promptly attended to. Respectfully yours,

J. W. BREWER,
Acting Coroner.

The above has been fully identified as the body of SARAH E. MURPHY, of this city, and her brother started for St. Joseph yesterday to bring the body to this city for interment.

☞A CLEVER NEWSPAPER.—Among our exchanges there comes regularly a little weekly sheet called the Wisconsin Chief. By the way, it is somewhat singular that the smallest papers in our State are by a long odds the sharpest, wittiest, and most original—instance, Prison City Item, Ye Shanghai's paper, Racine Journal, LaCrosse papers, &c. Well, this Chief is edited by T. W. BROWN, a man not only eloquent, but brilliant—ergo such a clever sheet. It has a distinctive character aside from any other journal in the western country. It proclaims temperance to all the people, not through an old fashioned trumpet, but through instrumentalities new and novel. Quaint squibbs; pleasant and juicy correspondence loaded with healthy sentiment; choice, pointed little leaders; sententious paragraphs, all from the brain—none of your everlasting clippings! This original little waif ought be in every family in the State—we need not say temperance family.

So firm and determined an advocate of the great interest of humanity as T. W. BROWN. So pleasant a companion as the neatly printed and well filled Chief, should command subscribers wherever there are good judges. We always pick out the Chief from the bad company which surrounds it from the post office, stow it away in our pocket and at a convenient half hour go it over with almost as much satisfaction as we would over a volume of LAMB. Then the "Missus" takes it and picks out the plums, and then the children get it, and finally the neighbors borrow it, and never return it, they probably poke it bodily into their scrap books. Verily it is a clever little paper and the only reason why everybody does not think so, is that everybody has'nt yet seen it. Let everybody send his subscription to Fort Atkinson and be comforted.

TOWN OF MILWAUKEE.—Pursuant to notice, a meeting was held at the house of Carl E. Hartmann, on Tuesday evening. PETER BENDER was chairman, and HIRAM BENDER, Secretary.

The meeting being duly organized, was addressed by Messrs. G. A. STARKWEATHER, WINKLER, PHELPS, COGSWELL and PAINE, of the city of Milwaukee, and C. HANF, C. E. EVARTS and CARL LUDWIG, of the town of Milwaukee.

A good feeling prevailed during the meeting. The town of Milwaukee will be redeemed on the 6th of November.

It was resolved that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Republican papers of the city of Milwaukee.

The meeting, after giving three cheers for the Republican ticket, adjourned till the 5th of November, to hear CARL SCHURZ.

PETER BENDER, Chairman.
HIRAM BENDER, Sec'y.

CHOICE BUCKWHEAT FLOUR.—As the season of hot cakes is now almost at hand, our housekeepers will soon be looking about them for a good article of buckwheat, and for the information of such, this paragraph is written Mr. W. M. BRIGHAM, produce merchant on West Water Street, near the Mil. & Miss. R. R. has already a good supply on hand from the celebrated Sauk City Mills, put up in nice little sacks of 24 pounds each, expressly for family use. We have tried the "Sauk City" buckwheat, and can say without hesitation, that others who do the same will be sure of getting a choice article.

THE MIRROR OF ITALY.—This evening WAUGH's Mirror of Italy will be exhibited at the Academy of Music. The pictures represent two hundred splendid views of lakes, cities, palaces, cathedrals, &c., forming a combination of attractions seldom offered to the public in one exhibition. The pictures are explained by a historical and scientific lecture.

WE UNDERSTAND that an enterprising citizen is about to open a refreshment saloon in BOWMAN's Block, in connection with the Good Templar "hops," where he will be happy to furnish ice cream and lemonade to the Good Templars, and lager to "outsiders."

GUERNSEY'S BALM.—Ought by this time to be in your house. Almost every family uses it, and knows its value, for Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Fractures, Sprains, Neuralgia and Rheumatism; it is the best remedy known.

"FEED THE HUNGRY."—But do it with good wholesome bread made with JAMES PYLE's pure Dietetic Saleratus, which contains no adulterations, and is as harmless as flour—no other is so. Beware of imitations! Depot, 345 Washington street, New York. Sold by grocers everywhere.

CARL SCHURZ and JOHN F. POTTER will speak at Melms' Garden, Eighth Ward, on Friday evening, November 2d, at 8 o'clock.

MUNICIPAL COURT, Oct. 31.—C. Coot, disorderly. Fine $11,50 and costs—Not paid yet.

Jas. McManus, disorderly. Penalty and costs $6,86—Paid.

Sandy Howard, violating bridge ordinance. Bridge tender failed to appear to prosecute, and defendant discharged.

Jno. Smith, vagrancy. Fined $10,00 and costs—allowed to leave the city.

Michael Collins and Jno. Casy, (Bunker Boys) vagrancy. Sentenced to State Reform School a year each.

Henry Smith, assault and battery. Fined $10,00 and cost—not paid; as yet.

FIRE.—A fire broke out on Tuesday evening, in a small frame building on Chestnut street, near Tenth. It was occupied by a German named JOHN KESSLER. The building was entirely destroyed. Loss about $300.

A MEETING OF THE REPUBLICANS of the Second Ward will be held at KORMAN's Saloon, Thursday evening at seven o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a Councillor and Railroad Commissioner.

WARD COMMITTEE.

THE GREAT HOLLAND REMEDY—BŒRHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Persons subject to nervous sick headache, will find in BŒRHAVE'S Holland Bitters, a sure, safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an effectual remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, speaks much in its favor. See advertisement in another column. eod1m

DOUGLAS MEN! READ!

We invite the friends and supporters of Mr. DOUGLAS to read and heed the article in this morning's SENTINEL, copied from the St. Paul Pioneer & Democrat, a zealous and original DOUGLAS paper. Our Minnesota cotemporary, it will be seen, frankly admits that Mr. DOUGLAS has no chance of success in a single State, and that the choice is between LINCOLN and a Free Code and BRECKINRIDGE and a Slave Code. On this issue the Pioneer & Democrat anticipates a million majority for LINCOLN in the Free States. Read the article!

Breckinridge at the South.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce of Saturday says:

> We conversed yesterday with a very intelligent gentleman recently from the South, whose means of information as to political prospects there are not surpassed. He expressed to us the opinion that every Southern State would go for Breckinridge and Lane. This is rather beyond our own expectations, but not much. In our original estimate, soon after the adjournment of the Baltimore Convention, we classed 25 of the 120 southern votes as doubtful, and gave the rest to Breckinridge. We should employ about the same figures at present.

Every southern State, it seems, is to vote for BRECKINRIDGE, a purely sectional candidate, and the representative of doctrines which disgrace humanity. Has not the North the same sectional rights? Or shall the North secede in the event of a President being thus forced upon them by southern sectionalism?

THE VOTE OF NEW YORK.—The Madison Patriot of Tuesday publishes two "estimates" by counties, of the vote of New York, one of which it ascribes to "LINCOLN men" and the other to Democrats. According to the former, "fusion" will have five hundred majority in the Empire State, and according to the latter fifteen thousand. Whereupon Patriot says:

> Thus, it will be seen that New York is safe against Lincoln by Democratic and Republican estimate. We have no fears whatever that Lincoln is beaten.

You need have none. There is not the slightest danger of LINCOLN being "beaten." As to "LINCOLN" estimates of New York, we have two before us, from sagacious and well-informed politicians there; one of them making the Republican majority a little over forty thousand and the other about sixty thousand. Our judgment is that the actual Republican majority in New York next Tuesday will largely exceed both these estimates.

TRUE AS PREACHING.—The New York Times of Saturday says: "The menaces of Disunion have already very largely increased the Republican vote in all the Northern States. Considerate men of all parties are beginning to say that it is time the thing were tested,—that it is well enough to know whether the Constitution or Slavery, is the supreme law of the land,—and that the right of suffrage is a solemn farce if it can only be exercised at the dictation of any interest, or any section. If the Federal Administration joins the outcry, and adds the weight of unpopularity to the intrinsic odium of the Disunion policy, the election will be very likely to prove a Republican deluge which will sweep the State from one end to other."

RELIABLE SOUTHERN VIEWS—LETTER FROM THE HON. B. H. HILL, OF GEORGIA.—The following letter written to the editors of the N. Y. Express, by the Hon. B. H. Hill, of Georgia, gives us the views of the South on the present political crisis in our country, candidly and reliably. Mr. Hill was the late Union candidate for Governor of the State and is one of the ablest citizens of Georgia.—News, of yesterday.

Mr. HILL is a Know-Nothing and his letter, therefore, is very properly addressed to the most intolerant K. N. paper in the country, the N. Y. Express. He wants everybody to "vote for BELL," in order to "save the Union." And the News, late organ of the Democratic party in Wisconsin, copies the letter and commends the advice! Where is the Democracy?

GETTING READY TO DISSOLVE.—The New Orleans Courier, a BRECKINRIDGE journal, asserts upon what it pronounces entirely reliable authority, that parties in that city have already commenced making arrangements for the publication of a Republican journal, in the confident anticipation of the election of LINCOLN. The Courier also more than intimates that there is a strong Republican element in that city which, immediately upon the election of a Republican President, will not hesitate to take the ground openly.

A SOUTHERN SCHOLAR WHO WOULD VOTE FOR LINCOLN.—Dr. NOTT, of Alabama, better known as a man of science than a politician, says in a recent letter:—"Not seeing that the South and the country at large have anything to gain by the success of any party now in the field I shall not take the trouble to cast a vote. If I were forced to vote in the present aspect of affairs, I believe I should cast it for LINCOLN, with the hope of bringing this "irrepressible conflict" to a close."

George A. Starkweather's Position.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL:—I see by an article in the Daily Milwaukee News, that the Editor of that paper has charged me as being "the last man known to have left the Democratic, and joined the Republican party," and intimates that I am promptly paid. Knowing the editor of that paper as I do, and the course his paper has heretofore taken, I am not at all surprised at the above announcement. I would suggest, however, to the Editor of the News, if he desires his paper should have any influence with the reading public, that he endeavor to publish the truth, and not make charges against me without any knowledge of the facts upon which such charges are based.—I know it is hard for the Ethiopian to change his skin, or the leopard his spots, and, therefore it is very probable my advice will have little or no effect in this instance.

That I was a Democrat, and worked in the Democratic ranks for thirty years and upwards, I am frank to admit, and there is no one fact that I feel prouder of than that. I was elected to Congress, as a free soil democrat in the State of New York, and took my seat during Mr. POLK's administration, and on the 10th of February, 1849, the Mexican Treaty being under consideration in Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, I made a speech which may be found reported in the Congressional Globe. I have a copy of it in my possession which is at the service of any gentleman.

I will now give the public a few extracts from the speech. Mr. STARKWEATHER said: "I maintain, Mr. Chairman, first, that Congress has the constitutional power to extend its legislation over territories belonging to the United States, and consequently to exclude slavery therefrom. Second, that slavery is a great political, social and moral evil, in direct conflict with the fundamental principles of this Government, opposed to its growth, prosperity and future welfare, and that therefore, it follows, as a necessary and irresistible conclusion from the two first propositions, that Congress should adopt all constitutional measures to prevent its further extension."

I then went into an argument to prove my first proposition, viz: the constitutional right of Congress to legislate in reference to the question of slavery in the territories. I referred to the cession of the Northwest Territory to the United States by Virginia in 1784. Also to the cession by North Carolina to the United States of that portion of her territory which comprises the State of Tennessee, that the grant was made upon the express conditions, that no regulation made, or to be made, should tend to emancipate slaves. Also to the cession of Georgia in 1802 of the Mississippi territory. Also to the acts of the first Congress after the adoption of the Constitution in 1787. Also to the memorial of the Quakers on the slave trade, sent up to Congress in 1790, and what Mr. ADAMS said upon that occasion, and I also quoted from elementary authors, and from PETERS' reports.

I also referred to the fact that this power had been exercised ever since the organization of the government, including Mr. POLK's Administration. Also, that Gen. CASS put his election upon the grounds that Congress had not the power under the Constitution to legislate in reference to slavery in the Territories, and that he would have been bound, by his constitutional oath, if elected President, to have vetoed any bill to that effect; that Gen. TAYLOR had declared that he would not exercise the veto power, if such bill should be passed by Congress; that the people, the source of all sovereignty, had therefore passed upon and settled this question by electing Gen. TAYLOR. Under my second proposition, I said, among other things, the following: "But, sir, notwithstanding Congress has the Constitutional power to legislate for Territories belonging to the United States, the expediency of such legislation by no means follows as a matter of course. The exercise of a power must be controlled and governed by the results to be produced. If the benefits to be derived to the country by the exercise of this power will not counterbalance the evil, then, in my judgment, it should by no means be exercised. The Constitution was ordained and established in order, among other things, to promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity.

This naturally leads me, sir, to the consideration of my second proposition—the influence of slavery upon the country, in a political, moral and social point of view. It is not enough for the North to prove that their interests would be promoted by restricting slavery to its present limits. Nor is it sufficient for the South to show that their interests will be advanced by extending it to these territories. Something more than this must be shown. This was designed for a perfect and perpetual Union. It cannot be perfect and perpetual unless the general interest is cared for. The South would hardly be willing to take up the position, and attempt to maintain it, that although their interests might be promoted by the extension of slavery, that it was right and just, if it could be shown that the aggregate interests of the whole would be materially impaired thereby. We are, then, to enquire, whether the extension of slavery is calculated to promote the general welfare of the country, elevate its moral character, and give strength and stability to our institutions. Does any one believe this? Can any one believe it?

Then I went into a detail of facts, to prove that the extension of slavery was not calculated to promote the general welfare, and to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity.

In conclusion, my position was as follows:—

First, That Congress had the constitutional right to legislate for territory belonging to the United States, and exclude slavery therefrom.

Second, That the exercise of that power, to prevent further extension of slavery, depended upon the fact, whether the great interest and welfare of the whole country would be promoted thereby; if so, Congress should exercise it.

Third, That Congress has no right to exercise that power to establish slavery, unless you can prove that the interest and welfare of the whole country would be promoted thereby—which proposition no mortal man can prove.

Fourth, That Congress has no right to interfere with slavery in the STATES where it exists—that the States, as independent sovereign States, alone have the right to regulate it for themselves.

This was the position I occupied in 1848 and 1849, and this is the position I now occupy; and this is the position formerly occupied by the democratic party, in its better days, and to which party I was proud to belong and be an humble co-worker in the great principles of "constitutional liberty." Now the question is whether we shall stand by the principles held by our fathers, or whether we shall run crazy after Squatter Sovereignty or some other humbug.

Mr. SHARPSTEIN, I ask you to look at my position in 1848 and 1849, and my position now, and ask yourself "what right you had to make the charge against me, that I had changed my views" and that I was the "last man who is known to have left the democratic and joined the Republican party." Ought you not, as a fair man, first to have ascertained and satisfied yourself as to the truth of the charge before you made it? Are you so blind as not to be able to comprehend a principle?

Do you suppose that any one is bound to adhere to a party which has deserted all its principles, and run crazy after Squatter Sovereignty? Or, are you so carried away with a name that you have lost sight of everything else? Friend SHARPSTEIN, you are a young man yet, and there is great room for reflection and improvement. I hope you will see to it. Do you know who you are for now? Are you for DOUGLAS, BUCHANAN, BRECKINRIDGE, or BELL? or are you for yourself? You best know, and you can best answer the question. Go down to Jericho, and tarry till your beard be grown.

GEO. A. STARKWEATHER.

A REMARKABLE ARTICLE.

A Douglas Organ on the Present Aspect of the Canvass—Douglas Men Urged to Vote for Lincoln—his Election predicted by a Million Majority—Read, Douglas Men, Read!

From the St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat.

We are in daily receipt of letters from political friends, filled with anxious inquiries concerning the present state of the Presidential question, and desiring an expression of our views as to the probable influence of the election of the Ninth upon the prospects of candidates, and with reference to the various platforms of principles really at issue before the people, and which are to be practically decided at the polls. We do not hesitate to respond to these inquiries; and the less so because it is a part of our duty to treat of such matters candidly and frankly, even in the absence of friendly solicitation.

In the first place, then, we think the results of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, demonstrate beyond all reasonable ground for doubt, that those States will go for Lincoln in November, and by vastly increased majorities. The disgusting corrupt scheme of fusion which was entered into, partially in Ohio and Indiana, and completely in Pennsylvania, has been repudiated by the people of those States, emphatically and justly. It cannot be assumed that the people of other States in which the canvass has been made up according to the fusion programme, will act with any less honesty and intelligence, when the time comes for them to vote. We think, therefore that New York will follow the wake of her sister Middle States, with a majority of from one to two hundred thousand against the fusion outrage; and we further think, that the people of that State will vindicate their reputation for moral honesty and political decency by such a vote. And, inasmuch as the poisonous influence of this Fusion Upas has been extended beyond the States in which it was planted, demoralizing the democracy, destroying their hopes and paralyzing their efforts, WE CANNOT BELIEVE otherwise than that THE WHOLE NORTH WILL GO FOR LINCOLN—rendering the vote of the Free States for the first time in our history, purely sectional in its character.

In the second place, we think the influence of the elections of the North will be to sectionalize the vote of the South. The South must view the results in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, as determining the election of Lincoln. The natural impulse of the Southern mind will be to meet Northern radicalism with the radicalism of its own section. There is not time enough left to organize a new conservative movement in the South of sufficient strength to combat and conquer the sectional passions, which already excited, will be inflamed to madness by the elections of the North. The friends of Douglas will not work there with any heart, because they cannot look for a Northern response in a solitary electoral vote.—The South cannot unite upon Bell, because running on no distinctive platform, support of him would mean nothing and determine nothing. We may, therefore, look to see every slave State go for Breckinridge.

If these premises are correct, Douglas, and the principles which he represents, are, practically speaking, NO LONGER AT ISSUE IN THIS CAMPAIGN. The canvass is reduced by indications which are prophetic both in their tenor and force, to a contest between Lincoln and a Free Code on the one hand, and Breckinridge and a Slave Code on the other. This is a result which all who cherish the peace and harmony of the Union must deplore; but, deplorable or not, it is a plain fact, which cannot be gainsaid or obliterated, and which should, therefore, be looked at and acted upon as such, frankly and manfully. And being a fact, the voice of the North, in the expression of its sentiments at the polls, will neither be feeble nor uncertain. A million majority will show the fidelity of the Northern masses to the instincts of their section, when these are appealed to by an issue which cannot be avoided or delayed.

The Northern Democracy are not responsible for the sectional character which the canvass has assumed. It has been precipitated by the ultraists of the South. Taking its birth in the jealousies of the Southern politicians against the manifest statesmen of our times, the movement has grown up from its ignoble beginnings in personal hate to its present proportions of warfare upon civilization and of treason against the State. They, who have thus sown the wind, must reap the whirlwind. The ultraists of the South must be extirpated. Until this is done there can be neither national peace nor national prosperity. We had hoped this might be achieved through the agency of Douglas in the present campaign. THAT HOPE HAS VANISHED. Yet, regarding it as the first great act needful to be done, we shall greet its accomplishment with satisfaction through any agency that Providence may appoint.

The Presidential Vote.

The Presidential election is as good as settled, only the necessary work of casting a full republican vote, on Tuesday week, November 6th, remaining for the people.—There are only three or four States whose vote we regard as at all doubtful. These will not affect the grand result. The following States we believe to be entirely sure for Lincoln and Hamlin:

Maine	8	Ohio	23
New Hampshire	5	Indiana	13
Vermont	5	Illinois	11
Massachusetts	13	Michigan	6
Rhode Island	4	Wisconsin	5
Connecticut	6	Iowa	4
New York	35	Minnesota	4
New Jersey	7	Oregon	3
Pennsylvania	27
Total			179

The following States may all pretty safely be set down for Breckinridge and Lane:

Alabama	9	North Carolina	10
Mississippi	7	South Carolina	8
Louisiana	6	Georgia	10
Arkansas	4	Florida	3
Virginia	15	Texas	4
Maryland	8	Delaware	3
Total			87

The following States are doubtful, with perhaps a probability in favor of Bell and Everett:

Tennessee	12	Kentucky	12
Missouri	9
Total			33

The State of Carolina is also doubtful, with a probably, from the advices we have received, in favor of Lincoln. No State is left for Douglas and Johnson. In our opinion they will not have a single Electoral vote. Our summing up is as follows:

For Lincoln	179
For Breckinridge	87
Doubtful	37
Total	303

Majority for Lincoln over Breckinridge and doubtful, 55.

THE SOUTHERN AGITATION.—A writer in the Memphis Daily Appeal utters the following invocation, suggested "by the stake which Memphis has in the Presidential election:"

"Let our citizens think of this. Merchants, mechanics, property holders, pause a moment and consider.

Suppose Lincoln elected and the South precipitated into the panic and convulsion which will surely follow a successful movement by South Carolina and Mississippi to dissolve the Union; not a new inhabitant will be added from abroad to Memphis for a time, we know not how long; not a new building erected in the city the coming summer, but a universal stagnation of business and enterprise and trade of every kind.

Think of this, carpenters, bricklayers, brickmakers, painters, iron workmen. No building next summer, no work for you; where will you get bread for your wives and children, and yourselves, and money for your debts?

Think of this, merchants; who will buy your goods when fear and convulsion terrify the country?

Think of this, owners of real estate.—Where goes the value of your lots and houses? Stop building, stop increase of population, paralyze trade, fill the hearts of all men with panic and dread—how stands the value of real estate in Memphis?

Think of this, ye who keep hotels and boarding houses. Who will sit at your tables and sleep in your beds, and occupy your rooms, and so enable you to live and to derive profit from your labor and capital invested, and pay your debts?

Consider, we invoke you, what stake has Memphis in this election? The present value of real estate here is about $20,000,000; drop its value 25 per cent., it is $5,000,000 loss—five millions of dollars.

How much can Memphis then afford to give to avert this calamity? How much, the property holder to maintain and elevate the value of his houses and lots? How much, the carpenters, bricklayers, painters, plasterers, to keep up the growth of the city, to continue the building here next summer as for many past, to earn money to pay their debts, and to feed their families and themselves?

Rather than disunion, Memphis can better pay $5,000,000 and even more.

PROCLAMATION.

THANKSGIVING.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the children of men.

It is eminently proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devised, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to do all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity—in a wonderful process of development which has already placed them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandmen have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest.—Surely, "He findeth them with the finest of the wheat." Health has prevailed throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws. If afflictions have come upon, or calamities overtaken us, the benign influences of Christian benevolence have hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of joy and gladness, and I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 29th day of November, 1860, as a day of THANKSGIVING and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

And I recommend that the people of the State, on that day, laying aside the cares of life, gather together in their solemn assemblies, and, in manner and form approved by their consciences, return their thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blest, beyond others, with civil and religious Liberty, Educational Institutions, Peace and Prosperity; and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contributes to their happiness and well-being as communities and individuals.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless His name."

When the feast is spread, and the tables groan with fatness, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed.

Accident on the Mineral Point R. R.

Correspondence of the Chicago Journal.

GALENA, Ill., Oct. 29.

On Saturday, as the train from Warren to Mineral Point was on its way northward, the engineer, Rensselaer Smith, left the engine in the temporary care of another engineer, saying he was going back into the cars. He was missed, and it was supposed that he had got off at the next station. On the return of the train, he was found lying near the track insensible, having evidently fallen off the train, and laid there for seven hours. He was badly hurt about the head and back, and there are no hopes of his recovery. He has a wife, but no children.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.

LET NOT DISEASE, WITH ITS fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific order of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, stomach and the vital organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun with its glorious beams first causes the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone! So cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.

The following beautiful lines have been going the rounds of the newspapers with the statement prefixed to them to the import that they have been found recently among the papers of MILTON, and that they have been published in the recent Oxford edition of that great poet. They are fine enough for MILTON or anybody else, but we have seen it stated somewhere that a Quaker girl in Pennsylvania was the author of them. Who knows:

I am old and blind!
Men point at me as smitten by God's frown;
Afflicted and deserted of my kind;
Yet I am not cast down.

I am weak, yet strong;
I murmur not that I no longer see;
Poor, old, and helpless, I the more belong
Father, supreme, to thee.

O, merciful one!
When men are farthest, then thou art most near;
When friends pass by me, and my weakness shun,
Thy chariot I hear.

Thy glorious face
Is leaning towards me; and its holy light
Shines in upon my lonely dwelling place—
And there is no more night.

On my bended knee
I recognize my purpose clearly shown:
My vision thou hast dimmed, that I may see Thyself—Thyself alone.

I have nought to fear;
This darkness is the shadow of thy wing;
Beneath it I am almost sacred; here
Can come no evil thing.

O, I seem to stand
Trembling, where foot of mortal ne'er hath been,
Wrapp'd in the radiance of Thy sinless land,
Which eye hath never seen.

Visions come and go:
Shapes of resplendent beauty round me throng;
From angel lips I seem to hear the flow
Of soft and holy song.

It is nothing now,
When heaven is opening on my sightless eyes?
When airs from paradise refresh my brow,
The earth in darkness lies.

In a purer clime
My being fills with rapture—waves of thought
Roll in upon my spirit—strains sublime
Break over me unsought.

Give me now my lyre!
I feel the stirrings of a gift divine:
Within my bosom glows unearthly fire
Lit by no skill of mine.

CONSTANCE.

A TALE OF FLORENCE:

Raphael Salvator was the captain of a troop of bandits infesting the lower Alps. Of lofty stature, muscular frame, and undaunted temperament, he seemed especially fitted for the desperate part in which his evil stars had placed him. We say his evil stars, for Salvator was the pride of a noble family, of which honorable mention is made in the archives of Florence. He was a man of cultivated intellect and high aspirations; one who had never been destined to tread the obscure path of mediocrity. The miseries of Salvator would have made maniacs of less desperate natures; they made him a robber. His name was a by-word of terror to travellers and merchants. Meanwhile, Salvator never knew happiness on earth, save in a consciousness that his name could strike terror to the hearts of all. He had been injured, deeply injured; and he vowed vengeance—nor was he one to breathe such a vow lightly.

In his first manhood, Raphael had loved; not a worldling's love, but with deep devotedness. By day he walked through the marble halls of his palace, musing on the idol of his soul; by night he closed his eyes only to dream of her.

Constance Marco was a Florentine, with eyes like midnight when it is bright with stars, and a voice like the strain of the bird which loves the darkness; the brow of a Madonna, high, calm and pale; looking as though earthly passion would never overshadow it; and a smile which shed sunshine wherever it rested. She was so young and gentle that she seemed scarce fit to contend with the cares of life, and so light-hearted that she never appeared to have had one dream of sorrow. Such was she when she listened to Salvator's tale of love, as they sat together 'neath the branches of a pomegranate tree, from which he pilfered the red blossoms to twine in her hair, while the sounds of minstrelsy came faintly from the palace, swelling and dying, as the wind rose and fell among the Orange trees.

What recks it what he said, or how he said it, beneath the moon lighted sky, amid breeze and blossoms? Enough that she heard it without a frown—that she answered with a smile; and that Salvator pressed her to his heart and called her his own—his love—his world.

'Twas a sweet dream, and they walked hand in hand, his arm around her, and her rich warm cheek pressing upon his shoulder; slowly pausing under the delicious night-wind, they told each other the secret of their affection—how it had grown and strengthened since they first met; and if Constance kindled at the confession, he kissed away her blushes, and she did not repent her confidence. Raphael told a less embarrassed tale, and she pressed her small hand on his lips to stay their utterance: but the lover heeded not this gentle hindrance, and he showed her how long and ardently he had loved her—for days and centuries are in a lover's calendar—and the moon had risen high in the heavens, and orange buds were shedding their perfumed dew from their snowy cups, ere they remembered that the world was peopled by others beside themselves, and prepared again to mingle with its denizens.

A fearful year followed that blissful evening. A rival's blood crimsoned that blade of Salvator; but the stab was deeper at his own heart's core; could it be that Constance loved the smooth-lipped stranger? his own Constance! He could not think it was thus; and yet, she wept over the corpse such tears as only women weep for those whom they have enshrined in their hearts. But Constance, the beautiful, the fond, the timid Constance; no, no; it could not be; and Salvator held her to his heart, and loathed himself that he had dared to doubt her! He became a husband. Not a word, not a look of his young bride but was to him as light as music. All that tenderness that woman loves so well he lavished upon her with a prodigality which proved that his whole heart was in homage; and yet she was not happy. The smile fled from her lip, her step became less buoyant, and her voice more sad. Raphael mourned, wondered, but never yet doubted; and when Constance placed in his arms her infant child, he forgot all sorrow in contemplation of its cherub face. One day he led his fair wife forth into the sunshine, with his child slumbering upon his bosom. He talked to Constance of all which that child might be to them, gifted, as she seemed, with her mother's beauty—that mother who was to him fairer than aught else on earth. Suddenly a messenger approached them, the bearer of strange tidings. He was the kinsman of Salvator, and he came with joy in his heart, to tell him that the rival he had smitten had nevertheless not been slain; that he yet lived, though his friends had borne him across the sea, when they rescued him from death: there was no blood upon the soul of the young husband.

Raphael scornfully smiled in doubt, but the doubt was vain. The stranger had been seen since his return to Florence; he still bore marks of Salvator's blade, but lived.

Then, indeed light returned to the eyes of Constance, though she uttered not a word as Raphael gloomily led the way back to their splendid home. One more short month, and the infant of Count Salvator was motherless.—Constance had fled! The father and child were alike deserted. The wretched and bereaved man caught up the weeping child—weeping, it knew not wherefore—and, in turn, abandoned the home which to him was now desolate. He wandered, he cared not whither, for many days. The peasants whom he met in his wanderings, shared with him and his motherless infant their simple and often scanty meal. And he slept with his child closely nestled to his bosom, under the clear, bright sky, or under some open-hearted peasant's roof. All knew who he was, but none dared to question.

One day he and the child were walking under the cooling shades of the trees, when he was beset by half a dozen bandits. Salvator drew his own trusty blade, and in a few moments half their number lay motionless at his feet. Their leader, seeing that Salvator was no common man, cried out to him:

"Hold, good sir, if you will join our band, no harm shall befall you or your child."

Salvator instantly accepted his terms, and soon after, their leader being killed, he was elected to fill his place. Now he was chief, he could have revenge! The thought of it was enough. He told his band all his wrongs; and they talked of vengeance! He was henceforth their's—body and soul. He girded the pistols and daggers to his belt, he pressed his little Constance in the arms of the gentlest of the bandit's wife. It is true he shuddered when he gave her into such rude keeping; but he was anticipating vengeance, and he turned away with a smile on his lips.

He watched and watched for years, and his longing was unappeased; and, meanwhile, his child grew healthfully among the mountain breezes, and with all the grace and loveliness of her mother floating about her like an atmosphere of light and all the hardihood of a young mountaineer.

Salvator's revenge had been so long delayed that the thirst for its indulgence became demoniacal when he heard that the enemy was at last in his grasp - and Constance,—too—she who had won his heart only to break it—she who was once the wife of his bosom, the mother of his infant girl—she was with the man upon whom his curse rested—to whom it had clung for years—upon whom it was to fall. The seducer and seduced were there, within arrow flight; and they breathed the same air with the outlaw and his child. Salvator writhed in agony. The fair-browed lover had been traced into a palace at the foot of the mountain, in which, in the recesses, were stationed the band of Salvator. The false one and her guilty companion could sun themselves boldly beneath the blue sky of heaven, while the bereaved husband and his innocent babe were hidden from the gaze of men, but the arm of justice should overtake them. The reflection was maddening, and excited by this bitter thought, engendering memories still more wretched, Salvator took his deserted daughter by the hand, just as the sun had flashed and faded into those sombre tints that bathe the world in twilight, and tried to find solace in the desert looks and tones of the only being who loved him; but he could not support even the prattle of the light-hearted child, and casting himself gloomily down, he bade Constance go forth and amuse herself in the soft grass. For awhile she stood pensive, with her tiny hands folded upon her breast, and her dark large eyes riveted upon his countenance.—After awhile she looked forth over the ledge of the rocks against which she leaned, and watched the wild birds as they winged their way to their nightly resting places.

Suddenly Salvator was startled by a scream and he hurriedly sprang from the earth; in in another instant he heard the report of a rifle, and Constance sank down by his side. The ball had entered her heart. She was dead. Salvator laid her gently down upon the ground, from which, in his first terror, he had sprung, and then fiercely gazing down the valley, from a point from which he could not be perceived, he saw two human figures. The foremost was that of a tall cavalier—the other was a lady, and further in the distance the bandit discovered a party of attendants.

He saw the truth at once. The cavalier was engaged shooting with his rifle at the birds, which were flying homeward to their nests in the rocks, and the lady was witnessing his prowess. The little Constance attracted their attention by her movements. The sportsman, believing it to be some mountain eagle, and anxious to exhibit his skill as a marksman, had but too fairly taken his aim. But Salvator learned more than this at the same time. It was not enough that the pure and beautiful image in which a spirit had been enshrined was now senseless; destiny had not yet done with him; a light laugh came upon his ear—a laugh of mirth as a requiem for his dead infant! He could not be mistaken! He had heard such a laugh in bygone years, ere the blight of misery had withered him—it was the voice of his Constance—of his false wife! He turned and looked at his lost child; bent over her for an instant, as if to convince himself there was no hope, and seized his rifle. He took a steady aim, and again the quick, sharp sound reverberated among the heights—another peal of laughter now awoke the echo, but this time it was the voice of Salvator. The cavalier—the murderer of his little one—fell as those horrible echoes swelled on the evening breeze. Quick as thought the rifle of the bandit was reloaded, and he looked, for a second, with a gloating gaze, upon the frightened party, who cowered around the fallen man. Then he again raised his weapon, but this time his hand was unsteady; his whole frame shook, and the strong man quivered like a leaf. Again he glanced back upon the object of all his love, and tenderness, and that sufficed. In the next instance a shout of horror ran up from the plain, for mother and child were alike lifeless. Salvator had taken no coward aim.

* * * * * * *

A few months subsequently Florence was thronged with curious crowds to witness the execution of Salvator, the bandit-chief of the mountains. He had delivered himself up to justice, confessed his crimes and wrongs, what he had done to the world, and what the world had done to him. The next morning the busy throng filled his cell. Salvator was no longer among the living. His chains were rent asunder, and were strewed around the floor. His own dagger had freed him of all his troubles.

The want of pure Medical Brandy has long been felt in this country.

This properties contained in this Brandy are more stringent than French Brandies. This the manufacturers claim are the merits, and challenge the world to disprove these facts.

BOURBON WHISKEY BITTERS.

THESE POPULAR BITTERS POSSESS all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered the public. As a TONIC for OLD PEOPLE, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of WEAKNESS or DEBILITY, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong and healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES and LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable remedy; and are a certain preventive of CHILLS and FEVERS.

THE ATTENTION OF THE YOUNG men of Wisconsin in particular, and of the Western and North-western States generally, is respectfully called to the advantages which this Institution offers for the acquisition of a knowledge of

BOOK-KEEPING

And commercial pursuits generally. It is now in a flourishing condition, and is working under a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION. The rooms are large and commodious, and are fitted up in splendid style. On introducing the subject to the student, he is led carefully, step by step, through the fundamental and general features of the science; and when these are fully realized, he is required to embark into a career of general speculation and merchandising, framing and adjusting contracts, purchases, sales, &c., &c.; making the necessary entries in the principal and auxiliary books, in precisely the same manner and order as they are made by the skillful Book-Keeper, in the counting-room of actual business.

Thus when the work is completed, the Student finds himself, not a mere theoretical, but a practical accountant, being fully conversant with every branch of this interesting and important science, as applied to General Mercantile, Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Importing, Exporting, Foreign and Domestic Shipping, Stocks, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Mining, Steamboating, Railroading and business of Co-pound or Company speculation, in each of which, he has met with adverse as well as prosperous operation.

The Ladies' Department is entirely separate and tastefully furnished.

Medical.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five or eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

One or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it has been caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One or two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One or two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.

Four to six bottles has cured the worst cases of dropsy.

By strictly following the directions in the pamphlet around each bottle, and a judicious application of the

SALT RHEUM OINTMENT,

SCROFULA OINTMENT and

HEALING OINTMENT,

every sore and ulcer, of whatever kind or nature, except cancer, that has taken root, is perfectly and permanently cured.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

Nursing Sore Mouth

In the more advanced stages of

Canker

it extends to the stomach, causing

Dyspepsia

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Kidneys

Your stomach is

Raw and Inflamed,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

Cure;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the Piles.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly, DONALD KENNEDY.

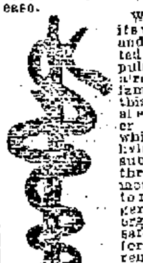
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Incipient Consumption,

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVE patients in advanced stages of the disease.



We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the United States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities anywhere which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil, to produce it the most perfect possible and thus afford to those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

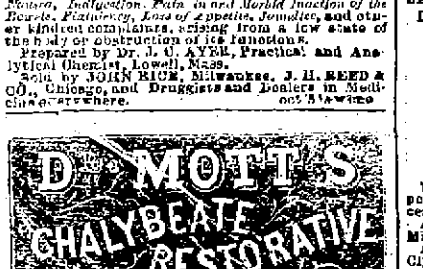
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrative properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. oct 5l&wlmo



AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world, as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

MOFFAT'S

Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure of these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description; King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Restorative Cordial!

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR!

IS PRECISELY WHAT ITS NAME INDICATES, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilirating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all.

So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted, so as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritations. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, A LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, & ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES.

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL

Also, Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and fever, but prevent all attacks arising from Miasmatic influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety.

THERE IS NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT.

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT

MOTHERS TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false delicacy, often goes down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they too would travel in the same downward path, until it is too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

Frank Blair at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 31—9 P. M.

Frank Blair returned yesterday from an electioneering tour through Pennsylvania and Illinois. He addressed a large crowd at Goulard market last evening. He referred to the late presence of Mr. Douglas in this city' and his reply to the questions of the "Bulletin" relative to the alleged complicity of Blair with Green's seat in the Senate &c. Mr. Douglas said in his late speech here, that the Republicans make a false charge, and call upon the Breckinridge men to swear to it. These men go around and retail what they pretend to have been private conversations furnished to Breckinridge and Republican papers. That if I will release them from their obligations of honor, perhaps they will speak out.

Mr. Blair said if Mr. Douglas intended to imply by the above language that I ever sought a private interview with him upon subjects, and furnished the Breckinridge papers with charges against him, based upon that conversation and sought to have myself called as a witness to prove the charge, he is guilty of a gross and wanton falsehood; and I can produce most conclusive evidence, and prove it upon him, I never furnished Breckinridge papers nor any one else, charges against Mr. Douglas based upon what he said. I did not communicate with any one on the subject, except in accordance with his own views and suggestions and to forward his wishes.

The Douglas and Breckinridge procession last night came in collision just as the latter were dispersing from the club room. The accounts published charge the Douglas men as the aggressors, though the Breckinridge men were victorious. The police alarm was given, the Fire Department was called out, and considerable excitement prevailed, but no serious damage was done. A special dispatch to the "Republican" from Boonville says that Senator Green in a speech there yesterday declared that but for Douglas Kansas would have been a slave State, and that protection to slavery is the only doctrine to preserve the Government. But he would support Douglas as the only chance to defeat Lincoln. He did not think that Lincoln's election would be a cause for secession—another name for revolution.

MONETARY.

TUESDAY P. M., October 31, 1860.

Exchange continues firm, buying at ¼ and selling 1 ⅌ cent. premium, but otherwise the money market is easy. Currency is accumulating faster than there is demand for it.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

The Tribune of this morning says:

The exchange market continues close and firm at former quotations, viz: buying ¾, selling 1 ⅌ cent.—The street rates for first class drawers are very nearly if not quite equal to those at the banks. The offerings of produce paper at the banks to day were better, but they were by no means up to their ability to discount. Currency is becoming very abundant. Gold—little wanted. Buying ¾, selling 1¼.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.

We have the following by telegraph from New York to-day, in reference to money and stocks:

Money easy and in good supply at 6@7 ⅌ cent on call. Sterling Exchange dull and weak at 105½@108¼. Stocks opened active and higher, but closed dull and lower. CINCINNATI MONEY MARKET.

The Gazette of yesterday has the following:

There was a falling off in every department of the money market to-day, as compared with Saturday, and business generally was dull, though not more so than usual for the first day in the week; and bankers, therefore, were not disappointed. The demand for loans was moderate, and this was freely met at 10@12 per cent., which is the range for good paper.

Eastern Exchange was steady at previous quotations, which we continue. Very little done in New Orleans, but rates remain firm at par buying and ⅜ prem. selling. There was some inquiry for gold for future delivery, but for immediate use there were not many calls. The supply is light, and rates are firm.—No change in the market for time bills. We quote:

	Buying.	Selling.
New York sight	⅛@¼ prem	¼@⅜ prem
Boston	[illegible] prem	¼@⅜ prem
Philadelphia	⅛@¼ prem	¼@⅜ prem
Baltimore	25@30 prem	⅜@½ prem

MONEY MATTERS IN ST. LOUIS—A CLOSE MARKET—ADVANCE IN EXCHANGE.

The St. Louis Democrat of Monday, has the following review of the money market:

The week closing to-day has not been a very easy one in money matters. Bank accommodations have been wanted by an unusual number of parties, and to a considerable extent they have been granted. Both the chartered and private banks have come forward and largely assisted in sustaining men of business, during their temporary trials, showing full confidence in the good business prospects of the future and the stability of the government.

Although money may be called scarce, and interest very high on much of the good paper offered, there is and has been much money to loan on safe real estate securities; and the demand for the same is very good also. The major part of this money is taken at an equivalent to 11 ⅌ cent. per annum, counting the commissions, though some goes at 10 ⅌ cent., no commission having to be paid. A sum of $20,000 was recently taken at this.

The Exchange market is ruling very close, the mercantile payments to be made to the East falling due about these days, and particularly about November 4th, calling for large sums to meet them. Both exchange and the funds with which to buy the same, are scarce, collections being very limited compared with what is desired. Sight exchange on both the East and South was advanced to 1 per cent. premium for bankable funds, and the supply is sufficient at this. Two or three dealers have, notwithstanding, continued to sell in small quantities at ¾ to regular customers—making nothing upon it.

The receipts of wheat were a little better to-day, it will be noticed, amounting to 72,191 bus; The shipments were 110,848 bus, up to 4 o'clock P. M. The market was rather quiet up to the opening of 'Change, receivers offering to sell freely at 85½@87½c for No. 2 and No. 1 spring respectively, and 89 to 91c for club and extra club delivered; but as soon as the New York report was received prices immediately advanced half a cent, and the market became very firm at 86c for No. 2 and 88c for No. 1. The sales were chiefly of the former, as sellers in many instances, encouraged by a further decline in freights, were holding No. 1 at ½@1c above the price offered. Up to the close of 'Change however, buyers showed no disposition to raise their offers, as in purchasing even at the inside figures, there is no margin for shipment. The same state of things has existed for several weeks, and the only hope for those who have been buying to "get out" without loss is a still further reduction in freights, or a material advance in Eastern prices. Freights to-day declined 1@1½c, and closed heavy. Last night the schr. A. E. Hart was chartered at 11c to Buffalo, and the Grapeshot at 16½c, in addition to those mentioned in our last report. To-day vessels were freely offered at 16c, and 15½c taken for the Jos. Grant. Shippers would not, as a general thing, talk of over 15c. It will be seen by reference to our marine column, that forty-seven grain vessels passed Detroit, upward bound, during Sunday and Monday. The market for flour continues extremely dull and depressed. For the whole range of country Extras, $4@4,40 are about the prices offered—the latter an extreme outside figure. There were some sales to-day, but nearly all on private terms. Freights the same as yesterday, both by Lake and Rail.

After 'Change the Fulton's advices, from Liverpool, gave additional firmness to the market, but there were no sales of any account, as buyers were reluctant to concede to any advance, preferring to await the effect of the news on the New York market in the morning.

The schooner Lookout was chartered late this evening at 15c to Buffalo.

RECEIPTS AT BUFFALO.

The receipts of wheat by lake at Buffalo, on Monday, amounted to 265,452 bus, of which 130,200 came from Milwaukee, as follows;

CHICAGO MARKET, OCTOBER 30.

Receipts at Chicago yesterday included 3,379 bbls flour, 71,942 bus wheat, 85,210 bus corn, 9,379 bus oats, 2,114 bus rye, 7,583 bus barley. In reference to the market the Tribune says:

The wheat market to-day was dull, and prices declined 1@1½c, under a limited shipping and speculative inquiry. About 90,000 bus changed hands, at 85½@86c for Northwestern Club; 83@83½c for No. 1 Spring; 80@81½c for No. 2 do; and 70@73 for Rejected. The flour market was more active, but at a concession of about 10c ⅌ bbl. About 3,500 bbls changed hands, at $4 25@4,70 for medium to choice extras, and $3,50@3,65 for Spring Superfine. The Corn market declined ½c, with limited sales at 35c for No. 1; 33@33½c for No. 2; 30c for Rejected; and 25c for new corn—all in store. Oats were quiet and steady at 17c in store. Rye dull and drooping. Barley neglected and heavy. Highwines were ½c lower—city manufactured being sold at 18@18½c. Tallow firm. Hides steady.

The weather was too warm for packers to operate, and the market for cattle and hogs was quiet and inactive.

Freights were slightly depressed. Several vessels were engaged at 16½ for wheat to Buffalo; 20½c for corn to Oswego; and 22½c for wheat to Ogdensburgh.

CINCINNATI MARKET, OCT. 29TH.

From the Gazette of Tuesday morning:

The foreign news published this morning caused dealers in breadstuffs to anticipate unfavorable advices from New York; but in this they were agreeably disappointed. Our despatches this evening quote flour steady, while wheat advanced 3c per bushel.—The Fulton's news is better than the reports by the Asia, and private advices by the latter are more favorable than the published accounts. In our market, the stagnation reported for some time past continues, holders refusing to make concessions, and buyers holding off. The sales were trifling. Corn firm, with a good demand. Oats in fair request at 30c for bulk.—Whiskey declined to 16c, closing with a fair demand. Mess pork firm at $15. Bacon shoulders are held at 8½c, with buyers at 8¼c. Sales of 54 trcs new lard, deliverable first half of November, at 10¾. We heard of no sales of hogs. Coffee in good demand and firm. Sugar steady. Molasses dull.

BOSTON FLOUR MARKET.

From the Courier of Monday morning:

Receipts of flour since yesterday have been 12,505 bbls. The market for flour continues moderate, but prices remain without change. We quote common brands western at $5,25@5,50; fancy brands $5,75; extras at $5,87½@6; and superior at $6,37½@6,75 ⅌ bbl, including all kinds. Southern flour is steady, with sales at $6,25 for fancy; $6,75@7,25 for extra, and $7,50@8,50 for superior.

DAILY MARKET REPORT.

WEDNESDAY, 7 P. M.

FLOUR—Receipts 2,112 bbls. Market extremely dull and depressed, sellers unwilling to accept prices that will leave any margin for shipment at present rates of freight and insurance. Sales include 91 bbls "Prairie Mills" Extra at $4,40—an outside price; 100 bbls "Southerland" do, 900 bbls "Imperial," and 350 bbls "Cascade" on p. t.

WHEAT—Receipts 72,201 bushels, shipments 110,848 bus. Market better and firm. Chicago Lumber Market.

TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 30.

The following table shows the receipts of Lumber, Lath, Shingles, during the past week, and since January 1, with comparative statistics:

COMPARATIVE RECEIPTS OF LUMBER, &C.

	Week ending Oct 27.	Since Jan. 1.	Same time 1859.

LUMBER—The receipts of lumber during the past week were not so heavy, amounting to 7,068,000 feet. During the corresponding week in 1859 the receipts were 6,015,000 feet.

In the market for cargoes there has been a much better feeling during the week, and the tendency is again slightly upward for good well assorted cargoes. Inferior cargoes, however, remain about the same, with the difference that they are somewhat more easily sold at former quotations.

The number of cargoes thrown on the market during the week was comparatively few—the great bulk of the receipts having gone to fill contracts. This is the case especially with the Lake Huron, Saginaw and St. Clair River lumber, and to some extent with the Muskegon and Grand River manufacture.

A large proportion of the mills at all the prominent lumber districts are closed for the season, for want of logs, and the receipts for the balance of the season will probably be light.

There is also a much better feeling among city dealers, and the market is firm at previous quotations. The orders from the country have been more numerous and much heavier, the whole indicating a more hopeful state of affairs both in the country and city. The demand for fencing has improved considerably, and there is also a very good inquiry for boards.

SHINGLES—The market continues very bare, and prices tend steadily upward. During the week several deck loads of prime No. 1 Shingles were sold at $3,25 afloat, and 30,000 common, from Grand River, at $2,20 afloat. Sawed Shingles are coming very much into favor, and the market is firm and the supply limited. We note sales during the week of 150,000 inferior sawed, per schooner Illinois, from Grand River, at $1,87½ afloat; 200,000 sawed, from Kalamazoo, at $2,50 afloat; 200,000 sawed from the same place, at $2,75. But at the close there was a good demand for A 1 sawed at $2,25. In the yards, dealers are selling prime A 1 Shingles, sawed and shaved, at $3,50.

LATH—Scarce and in demand at $2,00@2,12½ afloat, with a fair business in the yards, at $2,25@2,50.—Tribune.

FROM LAKE SUPERIOR.

The steamer City of Cleveland, Capt. George H. Ryder, arrived from Lake Superior last evening at 9 o'clock. She left Portage Lake on Thursday, Oct. 25th, at 7 A. M., and Marquette on Friday at 5 A. M. Met the steamer Planet off Grand Sauble, the prop. Burlington at White Fish Point, the schr. Flight below White Fish Point. Left Sault Ste. Marie on Saturday at 6 A. M. Met the prop. Iron City, at [illegible]; Illinois and Sea Bird, on Lake George, the schooner [illegible] at [illegible]; the prop. Northern Light at Lime Island. Lay at Detour 24 hours, during a heavy south-easter. Left Detour on Sunday at 4 P. M. Met the props. Detroit and Gen. Taylor above Forestville, Lake Huron. The City of Cleveland brought down 116 tons iron ore. She will leave again for Lake Superior to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.—Detroit Free Press, Monday.

BRIG CLARION ON A REEF.

The Detroit Tribune of Tuesday evening says:

The propeller Niagara, which passed down to-day from Chicago, reports the brig Clarion hard aground on Skillagalee reef with a cargo of grain. The Niagara was too deeply loaded to approach near enough to render any assistance. Capt. Lathrop, however, called at Mackinac and notified Capt. Hart, of the tug Leviathan, who left immediately to go to her relief. Should the weather continue favorable it is probable she may be got off. We learn nothing as regards insurance.

COLLISION.

The bark David Morris, bound up with coal, was struck by some propeller on Sunday night, at or near the mouth of the river, and a cathead and a portion of the stem above water knocked off. She is now at Campbell's dry dock, and will be ready to proceed on her voyage. She is not leaking.—Det. Advertiser, Monday.

IN DRY DOCK.

The schooner Dan Tindal was towed up from Toledo on Sunday, by the tug Ontario, to Campbell & Owens' dry dock, for slight repairs. She got out yesterday afternoon, and her place was immediately taken by the schooner Freeman.—Ibid.

FROM LIVERPOOL.

We notice the arrival, in this port, direct from Liverpool, of the bark E. S. Adams, Nelson, master. The E. S. Adams is owned by Norris & Nelson, of St. Catharines, Canada West, who, at the present time, own the largest fleet of the finest vessels trading between Canada and the West. The Adams has on board a part cargo of pig iron, assigned to Cleghorn, Leckie & Co., of this city.—Chicago Tribune, of yesterday.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

CARRYING PASSENGERS BY WEIGHT.

The railroad companies of France are about to put into operation a plan which cannot fail of being received with favor by the public. It is proposed to run, each week, a train of cars between distant points, for which tickets can be obtained in advance, and to which the companies will guarantee to admit only a limited number of passengers, four hundred, for example. All the places being occupied, the engine not carrying any dead weight, to use a technical expression, the traveler can be transported at the price of merchandize; and the companies not only without loss, but even with a certain and calculable profit, will apply to these special trains a tariff, the great cheapness of which cannot fail of producing an immense business. By this arrangement the fare is about one-fifth the usual price.

RIVER NEWS.

RIVER MATTERS.

Since the arrangement between the two Packet Companies, river business appears to go on quietly and harmoniously to the satisfaction of both lines. There is plenty of freight and a liberal amount of passenger traffic, so that all hands are making up losses incurred during the competition. Most of the travel is over the La Crosse route, Davidson's line receiving the lion's share on up trips and the Old Line the same going down. The arrangement is such that the Galena packets do not leave La Crosse until 4:30 A. M. going down so that passengers have a comfortable night's lodging before taking the cars. Extra boats of both lines are required for the transportation of wheat from Minnesota towns. The river is rising slowly.—Winona Republican, 30th.

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other routes.

THE LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL

UNITED STATES MAIL PACKET LINE

Running only between LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL for the transmission of Passengers, Freight and Mails.

THE PACKET LINE IS COMPOSED of the Steam Packets

Favorite, Frank Steele, Winona, and Aeolian,

Acknowledged to be the best boats for the trade upon the Upper Mississippi, being of lighter draft than any now running.

This Line carries the United States Mail, and has not missed a daily connection since it was established, with the trains, either way, upon the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.

Shippers from Milwaukee will see that this is the most reliable Line of Boats for Freight, as the lightness of draft enables them to make their trip without delay, while by any other route delays are unavoidable.

One of the above Boats will leave La Crosse every evening, on the arrival of the 1:25 P. M. train from Milwaukee, and returning arrive at La Crosse in season to connect with the Express Passenger train, which leaves at 5 A. M.
